Bierbrier Development appoints Piché director of leasing/development

Casey Piché

LEXINGTON, MA According to Bierbrier Development Inc. of Lexington, Casey Piché has recently joined the firm as the director of leasing and development.

In his position, Piché is responsible for the leasing of Bierbrier's property portfolio, which includes Arlington Village Shops, Wellington Plaza in Medford, Walgreens Plaza in Haverhill, and Super Stop & Shop Plaza in Brockton. Piché will also focus on new development opportunities for Bierbrier Development.

Prior to joining the firm, Piché was vice president of regional business development at John Hancock Funds, Boston, where he served as an external investment wholesaler and specialized in separately managed accounts, mutual funds, and estate planning. Previously, Piché was employed as a senior sales representative at Boston Capital Corp. Piché holds an M.B.A. in Business from the F.W. Olin Graduate School at Babson College.
